

Stakeholder Policy

Approved by the Board: 3 September 2023

Dreadnought Resources Limited (“Dreadnought” or “the Company”) strives to contribute to the social and economic wellbeing of the communities in which the Company operates. This includes:

- identifying opportunities for partnerships that create shared value; and
- sharing the economic benefit with our local communities including, where possible, by maximising local procurement, employment and training opportunities.

At Dreadnought, we believe that the way we behave is integral to building trusting relationships with our stakeholders. That is why we place as much emphasis on our behaviour as we do on our results.

Any person interacting with a community stakeholder while representing Dreadnought is required to conduct themselves in accordance with Dreadnought’s Code of Conduct and other relevant policies.

Our approach to our stakeholders includes:

- Everyone has a role to play in building positive community relations;
- We consider our community impact with each decision that we make;
- We strive to ensure that every interaction with our community stakeholders is positive and aligned with our values;
- We communicate regularly with our stakeholders with integrity in an open, timely and transparent way;
- We work closely with our stakeholders, we share ideas and seek opportunities to collaborate;
- We value the diversity of our stakeholders, respect their culture, backgrounds, and aspirations; and
- We strive to achieve outcomes of mutual benefit.
