Corporate Governance Statement
For the Financial Year Ending 30 June 2024

This Corporate Governance Statement is effective as of 3 September 2024 and has been approved by the Board of the Company as effective on that date. This Corporate Governance Statement accompanies the Company's Annual Report which was lodged with the ASX on 3 September 2024.

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which the Company has, during the financial year ending 30 June 2024, followed the fourth edition recommendations set by ASX Corporate Governance Council in its publication Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations). The Recommendations are not mandatory, however, the Recommendations that have not been followed for any part of the reporting period have been identified and reasons provided for not following them along with what (if any) alternative governance practices were adopted in lieu of the Recommendations during that period.

The Company has adopted a suite of policies and charters which provides the written terms of reference for the Company's corporate governance duties.

The Company's current policies and charters referred to in the table below are available to download on the Company's website at www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/investors/#corp (Company's Website).

ASX Principles & Recommendations (4 th Edition)	Compliant?	Explanation
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	YES The Company has adopted a Board Charter that sets out the specific roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. The Board Charter sets out the specific responsibilities of the Board, requirements as to the Board's composition, the roles and responsibilities of the Chair and Company Secretary, the establishment, operation and management of Board Committees, Directors' access to Company records and information, details of the Board's relationship with management, details of the Board's performance review and details of the Board's disclosure policy. A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's Website: https://www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2024/09/C1.-Board-Charter-Adopted-20Aug2024.pdf
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	YES (a) The Company has guidelines for the appointment and selection of the Board in its Board Charter. The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter requires the Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) to ensure appropriate checks (including checks in respect of character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history (as appropriate)) are undertaken before appointing a person or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election as a director. (b) Under the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, all material information relevant to a

The Committee was dissolved on 20 February 2024. The Board addresses all duties and responsibilities assigned to this Committee in accordance with the Committee Charter on an ongoing and regular basis, including processes to address succession issues and to ensure the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the entity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2	YES	Under the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, the Committee is required to prepare a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has (or is looking to achieve). The Board's mix of skills is reviewed at least annually as part of the annual performance review, to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and expertise is present to facilitate successful strategic direction. The current Board skills matrix is annexed to this Corporate Governance Statement. The Board Charter requires the disclosure of each Board member's qualifications and expertise. Full details as to each director and senior executive's relevant skills and experience are available in the Directors Report in the Company's Annual Report.
2.3	YES	(a) The Board considers that as at the date of adoption of this statement the following directors are independent: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) Mr Robert Gee ii) Mr Philip Crutchfield KC

2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	NO	The Board considers Mr Robert Gee and Mr Philip Crutchfield KC to be independent. This forms 50% of the board.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	NO	The Board Charter provides that, where practical, the Chair of the Board should be an independent director and should not be the Managing Director. While the Company recognises the benefit of having an independent director as Chair, the Board considers that Mr Paul Chapman retains independent judgment such that it does not interfere with the discharge of his duties to the Company. The Board has had due regard to the current size and structure of the Company, composition of the current Board and Mr Chapman's extensive experience in managing companies in the resources industry. The Board considers that Mr Chapman is the most suitable person to act as Chair and believes that it can maintain a high level of integrity to discharge its duties and responsibilities as a Board.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	YES	In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee (or in its absence, the Board) is responsible for the approval and review of induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities.

ASX Principles & Recommendations (4 th Edition)		Compliant?	Explanation
Principle 3 – Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	YES	The Company's Board Charter and Code of Conduct outline the Company's Purpose, Strategy and Values. These documents are available on the Company's website.
3.2	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code.	YES	The Company's Code of Conduct applies to the Company's employees, directors and senior executives and can be found at the following location on the Company's website: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/S1.-Code-of-Conduct.pdf The Code of Conduct outlines the principles and standards to which the Company's employees, directors and senior executives are encouraged to strive towards when dealing with each other, shareholders, other stakeholders and the broader community.
3.3	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a whistleblower policy; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.	YES	The Company has established a Whistleblower Policy outlining who is entitled to protection as a whistleblower, the procedures for reporting and investigating reported matters, and the measures in place to protect reporters of improper conduct. A copy of the Company's Whistleblower Policy can be found on the Company's website at the following location: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/G5.-Whistleblower-Policy.pdf
3.4	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.	YES	The Company has established an Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy setting out the responsibilities in observing and upholding the Company's position on bribery and corruption and providing information and guidance to Company Representatives (as defined in the policy) on how to recognise and deal with bribery and

Principle 4 – Safeguard the integrity of corporate reports
4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	PARTIAL	(a) The Company's Board Charter provides for the creation of an Audit and Risk Committee (if it is considered it will benefit the Company), with at least three members, all of whom must be non-executive Directors with the majority required to be independent, and which must be chaired by an independent director who is not the Chair of the Board. The Company has adopted an Audit and Risk Committee Charter which sets out the role and responsibilities of the Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) and can be found on the Company's website at the following location: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/C2.-Audit-and-Risk-Committee-Charter.pdf (b) The Company did not have an Audit and Risk Committee for the past financial year as the Board did not consider the Company would benefit from its establishment. In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Board carries out the duties that would ordinarily be carried out by the Audit and Risk Committee under the Audit and Risk Committee Charter including Risk Management, Internal Audit functions and ensuring the proper relationships with the External Auditors.

			The Company's Policy on Selection, Appointment and Rotation of External Auditors outlines the process for appointment and removal of the External Auditors based on ongoing reviews by the Board, and the rotation of the audit engagement partner in compliance with relevant legislation. The Policy can be found on the Company's website: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/G8.-External-Auditors-Policy.pdf
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	YES	The Company's Board Charter and Risk Management Policy require the Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer to provide a sign off on these terms. The Company has obtained a sign off on these terms for each of its financial statements in the past financial years.
4.3	A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	YES	As outlined in the Board Charter and following the Recommendations, all reports are initially prepared or verified by the Chief Financial Officer then reviewed for accuracy and verified for integrity by the Board and the Company Secretary prior to release.
Principle 5 – Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under listing rule 3.1	YES	The Board Charter and Continuous Disclosure Policy detail the Company's disclosure requirements and processes as required by the ASX Listing Rules and other relevant legislation. The Continuous Disclosure Policy can be found on the Company's website at the following location:

			www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/G4.-Continuous-Disclosure-Policy.pdf
5.2	A listed entity should ensure that its board receives copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.	YES	The Company has established automatic reporting via the ASX Market Announcements Platform for immediate distribution of the released market announcements to each Board member.
5.3	A listed entity that gives a new and substantive investor or analyst presentation should release a copy of the presentation materials on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation.	YES	All slides and presentations used for briefings and analyst presentations are uploaded to the ASX Market Announcements Platform and released prior to the briefing to the market. Further details are set out in the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy.
Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	YES	Information about the Company and its governance is available on the Corporate Governance tab of the Company's website found at the following location: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/investors/#corp
6.2	A listed entity should have an investor relations program that facilitates effective two-way communication with investors.	YES	The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communication Policy which aims to promote and facilitate effective two-way communication with investors. The Policy outlines a range of ways in which information is communicated to shareholders and can be found at the following link: www.dreadnoughtresources.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2023/09/G6.-Shareholder-Communication-Policy.pdf . The Company has recently introduced the InvestorHub platform which provides an effective way for investors to engage with and ask questions of the Company.

ASX Principles & Recommendations (4 th Edition)		Compliant?	Explanation
6.3	A listed entity should disclose how it facilitates and encourages participation at meetings of security holders.	YES	Shareholders are encouraged to participate at all general meetings of the Company. Upon the despatch of any notice of meeting to shareholders, the company secretary shall send out material listing the various means available to attend the meeting or lodge proxy votes and all shareholders are encouraged to lodge any questions they would like addressed prior to the meeting and participate by asking questions at the meeting.
6.4	A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands.	YES	The Company conducts shareholder meetings in compliance with the requirement to decide substantive resolutions by deed poll.
6.5	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	YES	The Shareholder Communication Policy provides that security holders can register with the Company to receive email notifications when an announcement is made by the Company to the ASX, including the release of the Annual Report, half yearly reports and quarterly reports. Links are made available to the Company's website on which all information provided to the ASX is immediately posted. The Investors section of the Company's website includes an outline of how a shareholder can elect to receive communications. Shareholder's queries should be referred to the Company Secretary in the first instance.
Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and	PARTIAL	(a) The Company's Board Charter provides for the creation of an Audit and Risk Committee (if it is considered it will benefit the Company), with at least three members, all of whom must be non-executive Directors with the majority required to be independent Directors, and which must be chaired by

In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Board carries out the duties that would ordinarily be carried out by the Audit and Risk Committee under the Audit and Risk Committee Charter including processes to oversee the entity's risk management framework.
7.2 The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that the entity is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the board; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	YES	(a) The Audit and Risk Committee Charter requires that the Audit and Risk Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) should, at least annually, satisfy itself that the Company's risk management framework continues to be sound. (b) The Company's Board has completed a review of the Company's risk management framework in the past financial year. The Board performs a regular review of the Company's risk matrix and regularly reviews reports by management on the efficiency and effectiveness of the Company's risk management framework and implements required changes as necessitated.

7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance, risk management and internal control processes.	YES	(a) The Audit and Risk Committee Charter provides for the Audit and Risk Committee to monitor the need for an internal audit function. (b) The Company did not have an internal audit function for the past financial year. The Company's Board and management are responsible for monitoring the Company's internal audit functions.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental or social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	YES	The Audit and Risk Committee Charter requires the Audit and Risk Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) to assist in identifying whether the Company has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks. The Company discloses this information in its Annual Report if appropriate and this Report is made available on the Company's website in accordance with its continuous disclosure obligations.
Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly
8.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met	PARTIAL	(a) The Company's Board Charter provides for the creation of a Remuneration and Nomination Committee (if it is considered it will benefit the Company), with at least three members, a majority of whom must be independent non-executive directors, and which must be chaired by an independent director.
